

Susan Jacks In Concert

March 10, 2012 7PM
University of Victoria Centre Farquhar Auditorium

Canadian singer/songwriter Susan Jacks received a kidney transplant in February 2010. Her new kidney was donated by her brother Billy whose name was used for her first international hit "Which Way You Goin' Billy?". Susan now devotes much of her time working with the Kidney Foundation of Canada and will be performing a benefit concert on March 10, 2012 to promote the need for organ donation.

The concert will kick off The Kidney Foundation of Canada's Kidney Health Month in March.

Tickets available at www.auditorium.uvic.ca/tickets

$50 reserved seating
$100 VIP seating – includes meet and greet with Susan Jacks after the show

The foundation of kidney care.

Please join the movement to raise organ donation registration!